

Eden Valley Holiday Cottages (Under New Ownership from 03/03/2014)

Set amidst the rolling fells of England's most tranquil district are Wetheral Holiday Cottages - an exclusive enclave of five luxury Eden Valley properties.

These traditional farm holiday cottages sit within their own delightful grounds on the edge of the typical "Eden Valley" village of Great Salkeld, only 200 metres from the local pub offer a charming home from home for those wanting a peaceful Cumbrian getaway.

With delightful views of rolling farmland, they provide a perfect base for a relaxing self-catering Lake District break.

Wetheral Holiday Cottages are just a stone's throw from the many historic and interesting villages of the lovely Eden Valley as well as a range of local attractions.

They are also excellently placed for exploring the breathtakingly beautiful English Lake District with its soaring mountain ranges, deep blue lakes and bustling towns.

Elegantly styled in the Cumbrian tradition with farmhouse features and all modern conveniences including central heating, digital Smart TV and Wifi, these quiet Cumbrian cottages sleep from three to six people and are a superb place to unwind and forget the stresses of everyday life.

I